

Domestic Violence Order Process

North Australian Aboriginal Family Legal Service

If you are experiencing...

...from a family member or someone in your home, you may be a victim of domestic violence.

You could talk to a lawyer or to the police.

You may have to go to court and a lawyer can help you write down what happened.

You may get a court order with rules that the violent person will have to follow.

If the person breaks the rules and makes more trouble, call the police and the person could be arrested.

If you are in immediate danger call police on 000.

If you want to speak to a lawyer contact NAAFLS
